

THE FORT, UNCHAGAON

About Fort Unchagaon

Located a mere 116 kms from the Capital city, New Delhi. This early 19th century Fort was inherited by the present Raja, Surendra Pal Singh in 1927 at the tender age of ten. The young heir took personal interest in the maintenance and preservation of his ancestral residence. The Palace was renovated under his guidance and therein lays the evidence of the influences of the early 20th Century blend of Indian and Colonial architecture.

Being the private domicile of a prince, the décor is authentically aristocratic. As the years rolled by, all modern amenities were added to the old Palace making it a much loved weekend getaway. Beautifully manicured lawns and flowerbeds surround the imposing white façade of Surya Mahal with lush greenery forming a backdrop to the outdoors.

Fort Uchagaon Features-

Elegantly ornate

Preserving traditions, memories and the very essence of the fairy tale time that seems ages away, the Living Room is a virtual delight, with eloquent memorabilia from the past.

Classy & Unostentatious

The billiards Room, with its understated elegance and some magnificent trophies, is a reflection of the time, when style remained a way of life.

Savouring moments

Keeping in tune with the decor, the dining room too is a perfect epitome of grandeur. Savour the traditional cuisine and the moments that are laden with poignant memories of yesteryears.

A medley comfort of style

Spacious and sophisticated, the bedrooms are an electric mix of the conventional and the contemporary. They offer a peep into the Arcadian life that was and still is encapsulated in the air.

Recreational Options

Billiards –Squash –Croquet –Badminton –Jogging Tracks –Pony Cart rides for children