

About Chail

Situated at a height of 7500 feet Chail is the smallest hill station on Himachal. The jungle Livinn Camp and Retreat is set on a ridge spread over 20 acres of untouched wilderness. Nestled in the wooded area of Chail (Himachal Pradesh), the place offers a perfect camping experience. The locale is surrounded by a serene countryside offering panoramic views, numerous village treks, walks in pine, oak and rhododendron forests, for those who want to get away from the daily hustle bustle of a city life. The flora and fauna of the forest includes some rare species of herbs, exotic birds, wild rabbits, barking deers and peacocks.
