

If you are outdoor kind, a nature lover and reasonably physically fit, then Jilling is the destination for you. Jilling Estate offers you over 120 acres of oak and rhododendron mixed forests to walk around in and a very healthy bird and animal population to view. And the snows are straight ahead with Nanda Devi, the highest peak, dominating. And in winters Jilling is blessed with snow.

There are long and peaceful walks where you will have the forest all to yourself. In the evening you may have your meal around a bonfire under the stars or besides a crackling log fire in your room. There are villages a few kilometres away where you can interact with the hill folks.

Accommodation

Jilling offers simple but comfortable accommodation in 04 Cottages. The underlying philosophy is that if you are in this place you ought to be outdoors for much of the day, getting in lungful of crisp mountain air, having your pores opened up, getting a tan from the walks in the sun, but when you come back tired from a hectic days work you should have a clean accommodation waiting for you.

Driving Distance from Delhi : 7 Hours.

Route : Delhi – Ghaziabad- Gajraula – Hapur (Bypass) - Moradabad (Bypass) – Rampur - Ruderpur – Kathgodam – Bhimtal – Khutani – Chanfi – Matial. It is a 1½ hours climb from Matial to Jilling Estate.

